REPORT NO.

1. Lt. Col. Alejandro Izaguirre Valverde, a close personal adherent of Lt. Col. Alfonso Llosa, is now in Lima and has been in close daily contact with the Minister of Development.
2. Shortly after his arrival in Lima he was informed that Col. Luna, temporarily in command in Cuzco, had called a meeting of officers under his command and informed them that he, not Izaguirre, was in charge and that the latter would probably not return.
3. Izaguirre immediately communicated this to Llosa, who assured him that he would return at least as Chief of Staff, if not Commander of the IV Military District, with headquarters in Cuzco.

Comment. Col. Luna is reportedly "an Odria man" and the rivalry that evidently exists between him and Izaguirre is interpreted as additional evidence of the basic rivalry within the Government between General Odria and the adherents of Col. Llosa.)
